

Message

From: Cheryn Robles [crobles@nola.gov]
Sent: 4/29/2019 8:16:32 PM
To: Fife, Greg [fife.greg@epa.gov]
CC: Josh W. Hartley [jwhartley@nola.gov]
Subject: RE: Lowerline update

Greg,

Are we meeting tomorrow? I'll be out Wed-Friday but can send Josh if I necessary.

Cheryn

-----Original Message-----

From: Fife, Greg [mailto:fife.greg@epa.gov]
Sent: Friday, April 26, 2019 9:35 AM
To: Cheryn Robles
Subject: Re: Lowerline update

EMAIL FROM EXTERNAL SENDER

I'll check with my contractors about their schedule. It should be possible

Sent from my iPhone

> On Apr 26, 2019, at 9:32 AM, Cheryn Robles <crobles@nola.gov> wrote:

>
> Thanks for the update, Greg. This is great news.

>
> My brother is getting married next week so I'll be out Wednesday through Friday. Any chance we could meet before then?

>
>
> -----Original Message-----

> From: Fife, Greg [mailto:fife.greg@epa.gov]
> Sent: Thursday, April 25, 2019 6:52 PM
> To: Jeff.dauzat@la.gov; Cheryn Robles
> Subject: Lowerline update

> EMAIL FROM EXTERNAL SENDER

>
>
> This is a quick update on the situation:

>
> We have briefed our Division Director Carl Edlund and he understood the urgency of the situation. He has approved the action and the request for funding.

>
> We have issued a task order to our cleanup contractor, ER. And they have started making arrangements to conduct the action.

>
> They want to do a site walk next week. That will include some coordination needs, identifying and securing vendors and such.

>
> That will allow for a definite start date but it should be in May

>
>
> Sent from my iPhone